

Mandatory Conservatorship Resources

Conservatorship Handbook:

It is mandatory that every Conservator be aware of the Conservatorship process and Conservator Responsibilities. Therefore, it is important to read the Handbook for Conservators. It is available for free at the following locations:

On-Line: www.courts.ca.gov/documents/handbook.pdf

Spanish: <http://www.courts.ca.gov/documents/manueldeltutor.pdf>

In-Person: The Law Library has a copy of the handbook that you can read in the library. The Library is located at 701 Ocean Street, Santa Cruz, basement, Room 70. For Law Library hours go to www.lawlibrary.org or call 831-420-2205.

Conservatorship Video:

There is an informative video entitled With Heart: Understanding Conservatorships that can also be very helpful in understanding the Conservatorship process. It is available for free or for a fee at the following locations:

On-Line: <http://www.courts.ca.gov/selfhelp-conservatorship.htm>

<http://www.courts.ca.gov/1300.htm>

In-Person: The Law Library has a copy of the video and also computers available to watch on-line. Appointments first need to be made to view the video due to space. Please contact the Law Library at 701 Ocean Street, Santa Cruz, basement, Room 70 or by calling 831-420-2205.

Conservatorship Information and Forms:

Information regarding conservatorships and court forms can be found at the Judicial Council web site: <http://www.courts.ca.gov/selfhelp-conservatorship.htm>